

Lala Gomis: Travel consultant and tour-guide par excellence

If someone would ask me to characterize myself, I would mention three qualities: determined, vigorous, helpful and service minded. I'm keen on traveling and always like to deliver a quality product. Yes indeed, those are exactly the good points a travel consultant and tour-guide needs to have.

My name is Ladda Gomis, born in ChiangMai in the North of Thailand. I completed my study management at ChiangMai University.

An open mind:

Traveling has always been my great passion: I have visited many countries on the Asian and European continent. I have met and learn to appreciate people of different cultural, religious and ethnic backgrounds. Therefore as a woman of more than one culture I have an open mind towards all that is new and strange. For a traveler a vital feature.

I wanted to have work that appealed to me the most. Work that offered room for independence and for one's feeling of own responsibility. That was the reason I decided to obtain an international tour-guide license and started to work as a tour-guide.

During the past 15 years I am working in in the tourist branch and have guided groups of many different nationalities.

Mainly from Israel and the Benelux countries (Holland, Belgium, Luxemburg)

Travelers wish:

After years of experience I understand the wishes of the modern time traveler and decided to start my own travel agency.

ChiangMai Cosmos Travel Service. (registered under TAT Licence 23/00918)

Guideline for me is the wish to design and offer an affordable, unforgettable and comfortable holiday in the north of Thailand. All tours completely designed and tailor-made to the wishes and requirements of the guests

The quality of destination, transport, hotel, restaurant, personnel and above all guidance is crucial to fit this demand. Therefore a tour guide must be determined, vigorous and helpful.

For the above reason I always work with a same team of drivers and tour-guides. All of them experienced and used to travel with Israeli and European guests, families and children.
